"Who is it that would loan Allah a goodly loan

withholds and grants abundance, and to Him

“One of the best kinds of intercession is interceding between two people concerning marriage”

(Ibn Majah, Marriage, 49)

Let's be the help of our youth!

With the difficult living conditions in the recent period, we find that young people who are determined to get married and suffer from poor financial conditions either resort to postponing marriage or live in a critical financial crisis because of the loans they took from banks and their usurious interest.

This situation made the most beautiful years of our youth's marriage under foreclosure because of these debts, demolished happiness and tranquility in these families, and was the cause of divorces. This situation was negatively reflected through statistical data on that.

■ The number of young people aged 18-33 in
■ our country is: 20.581.750

“He who sets a good precedent in Islam, there is a reward for him for this (the act of goodness) and reward of that also who acted according to it subsequently, without any deduction from their rewards; and he who sets in Islam an evil precedent, there is upon him the burden of that and the burden of him also who acted upon it subsequently, without any deduction from their burden.”

(Sahih Muslim, Zakat: 69)

“One who guides to something good has a reward similar to that of its doer.”

(Sahih Muslim, Government: 133)
